A regular meeting of the Business Men's League was held last night, with President M. B. Harlow in the chair. A letter was read from State Senator George A. Mushback, stating that he did not think that the bill now pending before the legislature for the removal of the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institute from Staunton to some other city would pass. The bill to amend the revenue law, which recently passed in the house of delegates, was read and created quite a discussion. Mr. Corbett moved that the league enter a protest against the amendment, which was carried, and a committee, consisting of W. B. Smoot, J. W. May and J. M. Johnson, was appointed to carry the protest to Richmond. A bill was next read which is now pending in the legislature, givirg insurance or mpanies cartain rights, etc., and was discussed pro and con by the members present. Mr. Johnson explained the meaning of the three-fourths clause and showed now easy it was for the insurand showed how easy it was for the insur-ance companies to pay only three-fourths of the amount insured. He further said that the bill was gotten up solely for the benefit of the insurance companies, who have entered into a combination. After a great deal of discussion, Mr. Park Agnew made a motion that a committee of five be appointed to draft an insurance bill, which was carried, and the following gentlemen were named: Park Agnew, Herbert Bryant, K. Kemper, Gardner L. Boothe and Thos. Waters. The following gentlemen were unanimously elected to membership: Joseph S. Beach, James McCuen, jr., R. W French, J. T. and J. G. Beckham, Dr. E. S. Fannie Thornton, colored, thirteen years old, daughter of Mr. P. E. Thornton of 936

Fannie at-tended the Garnett school and there was no reason for her to leave her home, as her parents had provided her with all the comparents had provided her with all the com-forts of life. The mask worn on the night of the rob-bry was hired at Rundlett's, on E street, as well as a wig and false beard. All three of the prisoners went there together when they hired the outfit. They had been at the place of another costumer before, but the outfit there did not suit them. What they found at Rundlett's satisfied them, and Shanks, while being walted on, made the remark: "I made a bet of $50 that a friend of mine wouldn't know me pointed, and all information for the news-papers was given out through him.

Among the delegates is one female, Mrs.
Helen S. Johnson of Pennsylvania. She is one of the national lecturers.

The council adjourned, after a short ses-sion, until 2 o'clock this afternoon, when the reports of officers and committees and the consideration of resolutions will be in order.

Little Business Transacted. The orly interesting bit of business this morning was the appointment of a committee to go before the House committee on banking and currency tomorrow to talk over the financial situation. It is said that Chairman Walker of that committee invited the Alliance to send a committee before his committee. The delegates appointed to go before the House committee today are J. F. Saturday morning when the officers made an investigation they were given a cane that had been left in the office, and this was identified as the property of Shanks. The council will be in session until to-morrow night or possibly until Thursday morning.

The press committee declined to give a list of delegates in attendance, but stated that about thirty states are represented.

The Political Policy.

The only thing of a political nature to come before the council will be in the shape of resolutions. These resolutions, it is where Roberts lived with Shanks and his said, will be sensational. They will outwife on I street northwest between 6th line the political policy of the alliance, and and 7th streets the money bags and car tickets stolen from the office had been burned and some of the partially destroyed will be an appeal to the members of the order for independent political action in this year's struggle.
